The Ionian Journey 19 – 24 October 2024

The sun will blaze over the turquoise waters of the Ionian Sea as the Ivan Patzaichin Team sets sail from the marina of Lefkada with a fleet of catamarans and sailing boats. This journey will be a scouting mission for a future sailing trip planned for October 2024, designed to offer guests a full experience of different types of boats and sailing adventures through the enchanting Ionian Islands of Greece.

The first stop will be Kefalonia, with its rugged cliffs and quaint villages. Anchoring in Fiskardo, the team will explore cobblestone streets and savor local delicacies. The following day, they will sail to Meganisi, marveling at its hidden coves and pristine beaches, where they will spend hours snorkeling in crystal-clear waters.

Nightfall on Meganisi will bring a sky full of stars, a celestial tapestry that will leave the team in awe. Setting sail again at dawn, they will head to the serene and less frequented island of Kalamos. In the ghost village of Port Leone, they will feel the weight of history in the silent, abandoned streets.

With a diverse fleet, the team will let the wind guide them freely among the islands. Guests will experience the thrill of sailing on different vessels, from the stability of catamarans to the agility of sailing boats. They will encounter playful dolphins, explore mythical caves, and forge fleeting friendships with fellow sailors and locals. The Ionian Islands will reveal their secrets, gifting them stunning vistas and moments of profound beauty.

As their odyssey nears its end, the Ivan Patzaichin Team will feel a deep gratitude for the Ionian Sea. These islands will offer more than just destinations; they will provide a timeless dance between wind, sea, and sail. With a heart full of memories and plans for the upcoming trip in October 2024, they will point their fleet towards new horizons, embracing the endless possibilities of the journey ahead.
